CIVIL ACTION BY EIG GLOBAL ENERGY PARTNERS

Keppel Corporation Limited (the "Company") refers to its announcement dated 2 June 2016 in relation to a civil action commenced by certain funds managed by EIG Management Co ("EIG") against, among others, the Company and Keppel Offshore & Marine Limited ("KOM"), for allegedly participating in an unlawful conspiracy further to which EIG was induced to invest over US$221 million in Sete Brasil Participacoes SA, and the Company's further announcement dated 3 April 2017 which informed shareholders that the United States District Court, District of Columbia had ruled in favour of the Company and KOM and had dismissed the aforesaid action.

The Company also refers to an article published on Law360 on 8 February 2018, titled "EIG Hits Keppel With $660m RICO Suit Over Brazil Bribery". The article refers to a new lawsuit brought by certain funds managed by EIG Global Energy Partners pursuant to the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, against KOM.

The Company wishes to clarify that to-date, KOM has not been served with the court papers relating to this new action by EIG.

The Company believes the reported cause of action is without merit and the Company will vigorously defend itself if and when the relevant papers are served.

The Company will continue to monitor the situation and will provide further updates if there are relevant and material developments in relation to this suit by EIG.
