Elvin caught the eyes and captured the hearts of many in his maiden drama serial "A Life of Hope". He did not disappoint after landing a major role in his first production, bringing to life the character of Liangyi-- an endearing, good-natured and filial hooligan and loan shark runner born into adverse conditions and compelled by external circumstances. Scouted as an established model with Looque Models (formerly known as Elite Models) and as the National University of Singapore (NUS) school beau in the "School Belle and the Beau" contest, Elvin's chiselled Pan-Asian looks and boyish charm earned him a surprise nomination along with two other nominees in the Singapore Fashion Awards' "Male Model of the Year" category in only his second year as a part-time model. In the relatively short span of three modelling years, he has had his fair share of photo shoots and catwalk shows, and he is equally adept at both; he has also done major press advertisements for SingTel, Paragon and the Great Singapore Sale.

Elvin graduated from the National University of Singapore (NUS) with a Bachelor of Arts Honours Degree in English Literature. Despite being an English Literature major, he is equally proficient in both Mandarin and English. His talents include writing, drawing and various sports especially soccer and swimming. He was involved with inter-constituency soccer at semi-professional level for a number of years. Elvin's image versatility is a bonus for his acting career, making him equally convincing as the evil antagonist or your great-guy-next-door. This, coupled with Elvin's willingness to learn and determination to maintain a right, humble attitude, shall put him in good stead and allow for his immense potential to come through.
